

CUET UG 90-Day Study Plan & Timetable

A Structured 3-Month Revision Roadmap Across Languages, Domain Subjects & General Test

Phase-wise Breakdown

Phase	Duration	Focus
Phase 1: NCERT Foundation	Days 1-30	Read through NCERT textbooks for all chosen domain subjects; build language skills; start daily General Test preparation
Phase 2: Subject-wise Practice	Days 31-55	Solve chapter-wise MCQs for each domain subject; start daily General Test preparation; revise NCERT material
Phase 3: Full Mock Tests	Days 56-80	Attempt full-length, section-timed mock tests simulating the real exam; revise domain subjects; continue daily General Test preparation
Phase 4: Final Revision	Days 81-90	Revise short notes and formula/fact sheets only; light daily current affairs reading; final General Test preparation

Suggested Weekly Rhythm (Phase 1-2)

- Allocate daily time blocks per subject based on your number of chosen domain papers
- Dedicate at least 30-45 minutes daily to the General Test (if required for your target programmes)
- One weekly consolidation day to revise everything covered that week

Customise for Your Subject Combination

CUET preparation load varies significantly depending on how many domain subjects and languages you're appearing for — adjust the time split proportionally, and prioritise subjects most critical for your target university's eligibility criteria.
