

CUET UG Domain Subject-wise Weightage Guide

Where to Focus Within Your Chosen NCERT-based Subjects

Why This Matters

Since CUET UG domain papers are drawn directly from the NCERT Class 12 syllabus, the highest-leverage preparation is a close, systematic reading of NCERT textbooks for each of your chosen subjects, rather than external reference books.

Commerce & Humanities — High-Yield Areas

- Accountancy: Partnership accounts, Company accounts, Financial statement analysis
- Business Studies: Principles of Management, Business Finance, Marketing Management
- Economics: National Income, Money & Banking, Government Budget, Balance of Payments
- Political Science: Indian Constitution, International Relations post-1990, Political Ideologies

Science Subjects — High-Yield Areas

- Physics: Electrostatics, Current Electricity, Optics, Modern Physics
- Chemistry: Organic Chemistry (reactions), Electrochemistry, Chemical Kinetics
- Biology: Genetics & Evolution, Human Physiology, Ecology & Environment
- Mathematics: Calculus, Algebra (Matrices/Determinants), Probability

Study Approach

Read the relevant NCERT chapter first, then attempt end-of-chapter questions and previous years' CUET-style MCQs on that chapter before moving on — this mirrors the exact source material CUET draws its questions from.
